

Bugaloe celebrates their first anniversary with athletics and music

The popular club and eatery Bugaloe, located on the De Palm Pier in Palm Beach, is celebrating their first anniversary by conducting the First Annual Bugaloe Music Festival and Beach Volleyball Competition. The events will go on for an entire week, and begin this evening with music a by well-known island performer Marisela and her band and dancing on the pier.

Musical evenings will continue on Tuesday, May 1 with Lotus and their terrific repertoire of golden oldies, and On Friday, May 4 with Acoustic Soul.

Official volleyball competition will begin on Saturday, May 5 under the supervision of the Aruba Volleyball Association, and will continue through Sunday. Matches begin at 11:00 A.M., and those wishing to participate can sign up by calling 568-4126 or 593-0091. The management of Bugaloe has organized a number of other activities to entertain young children, including a full schedule of games, face painting, and much more, so it will be a weekend of fun for the entire family.

Bugaloe owners Okko Bos, Ingrid Riko and Frank Gregoor are grateful for their success with both island visitors and residents over their past year, and invite all to celebrate with them. "We are grateful for the success we have had and wish to thank our customers for their support, and all our vendors for believing in us."

The weeklong celebration will end on Sunday, May 5 with the official anniversary party with music by Marisela and lots of surprises and all are invited to come and enjoy!
